First of all I wanted to say thank you to every man and women overseas fighting to protect our freedom. Your courage is what keeps this country together.

I also wanted to spread word about an upcoming show called 'Operation Myspace'. On March 10, Filter, along with some of today's most popular musical acts, will participate in a 3-hour plus MySpaceLive! concert in Kuwait that will be streamed in high definition exclusively on the official Operation MySpace profile:

<http://www.myspace.com/operationmyspace>. The MySpace community can watch the entire concert webcast starting at 11a.m. PT/ 2 p.m. ET.

Also, be on the lookout for Filter's first new album in over five years. More information can be found on their personal myspace page: <http://www.myspace.com/filter1> !

Enjoy the show and God Bless

Paul
